

About

Lupita Chagolla, a dedicated Certified Public Accountant (CPA), embarked on her journey with the Rohr CPA team as an Intern Accountant during the 2015 tax season, following her academic pursuits at Cal Poly. Since then, she has continuously proved her immense value, solidifying her position as an invaluable asset to the firm. Lupita primarily focuses on working with the Firm's entity clients, boasting an extensive background in S-Corporation tax compliance and consulting. Moreover, she adeptly guides clients through the intricate and often challenging realm of IRS and State Government representation, adeptly managing notices, correspondence, and audits.

What sets Lupita apart is her exceptional bilingual proficiency —she is among the select few CPAs on the Central Coast who fluently speak Spanish. This linguistic capability enables her to effortlessly assist Spanish-speaking clients, ensuring they receive our comprehensive range of services without any communication barriers.

A native of the Central Coast, Lupita's roots trace back to Santa Maria, where she enjoyed a fulfilling upbringing amidst her expansive family. During her time away from the office, she cherishes the company of friends and family, savoring the abundant offerings of the Central Coast region.
